Hi there and thank you for downloading this TurboTwitter list building report. I've put some amazing information in this report that I hope opens your mind and gives you several of those profitable “ah-ha moments”. This report is all about telling you the quickest and easiest path to instantly generating a bigger emailing list with virtually no effort at all, using one of the biggest, newest trends online. You won't want to get left behind on this one, folks.... I guarantee it!

Let's get started...

Because I have been looked upon as an “authority” on website traffic generation, I have so many people ask me for my recommendations on traffic sources. So, I decided to create this report for all of you who follow me and value my opinions!

I'm pretty picky when it comes to traffic sources and tools offered. They must...

- 1 } Provide free targeted traffic immediately
- 2 } Provide easy tools for fast implementation and the traffic must last for years
- 3 } Provide the ability to drastically improve search engine ranking and placement.

There's much much more I look at, but these three things are the main points a site must have.

Newbie websites and newcomers to the internet marketplace can get thousands of free targeted visitors quickly and build their email list into the thousands in just 24 – 48 hours, with virtually no effort and no cost at all. How?? Using one of the fastest growing free tools to hit the web since Youtube, Myspace & Facebook. It's called.... Twitter.com

If you have a website and a product and you want instant cash from, but you don't have a large advertising budget, it's time for you to consider using Twitter.com to help you get free website traffic. It's super easy to use and it is free.

Here's a great example from my own experience....

When Twitter first started to become all the rage, I was skeptical that it could be anything more than a mere fad. But there was something about Twitter that caught my interest. It was something I couldn't quite put my finger on, but I decided to monitor Twitter on Alexa, just to see for myself if it was a mere fad or if it was an actual business altering trend. What I saw surprised me.

Right away I was impressed to witness the breakneck speed Twitter had grown over the past little while. See for yourself; just go over to alexa.com and take a look at the stats.

One of the very first things that I noticed about Twitter is that out of over 190 Million Websites, Twitter had a traffic rank of 360. That alone proves that it is a serious website and it gets a ton of traffic. And that is really good news for people who need to tap into Twitter in order to get traffic to their websites.

Twitter.com - Twitter

Twitter.com has a traffic rank of 360

Traffic History Graph for twitter.com

The next thing I notice is that the daily page views that Twitter gets and its growth continues to trend upward. That means it's constantly growing. Now, this is the exact same kind of growth that Myspace, Youtube and Facebook all experienced. And as you know, marketers who use sites like these do very very well marketing on these sites. The difference here is that Twitter is not saturated like Facebook, Myspace and Youtube are.

The bottom line is, that with respect to the growth shown here, Twitter will continue to really grow in the coming months. And if you are not on Twitter, then you are really missing out on a lot of money online. And I can guarantee you that if you are not using Twitter in your niche, then your competition will absolutely crush you. And my guess is that you do not want that to happen. So, you really want to be using Twitter, plain and simple

So, back to my Twitter story. Convinced that I could harness the power of Twitter, I signed up for my own free account, and then I started looking around to sort of get a feel for it, and to see what everyone else was doing on there.

The first thing I noticed was how easy Twitter is to use. But with that, I also quickly noticed that there are a lot of really stupid marketers on there. As I worked and tested and even researched all I could about twittering and the whole twitterverse, I learned a library full of information about what works and what doesn't on Twitter. Some people seem to think that when it comes to Twitter, anything goes. I'm here to tell you nothing could be farther from the truth.

The plain and simple problem with Twitter is, because Twitter is so brain dead simple to use, most people use it the wrong way. They lose money, annoy people, never build a huge list of followers, fail to make any money of any significance, end up spamming, and are just not successful with Twitter by any stretch of the imagination.

And it's just so ridiculous that so many people fail because being successful on Twitter is easy, and is only a matter of common sense and implementing a few simple strategies along the way.

One of the most important things that I found was that it didn't take much to dominate Twitter. In fact, all it took for me was simply applying and using the software and secrets found in Twitter Cash.

This blueprint was put together because only 5% of the people using Twitter have any kind of marketing skills at all, an 95% have no clear formula to follow. Also, generating a consistent steady stream of traffic without constantly wasting time and loosing your focus is a major problem with Twitter users!

About 95% of Twitter members are “self glorified indulgent follow me...follow me...follow me types of people” NOT “savvy Twitter marketers” using the platform to make money. The result? They don't make money using Twitter. These people have it all backwards and have absolutely no idea how to use Twitter let alone how to write compelling “Tweets” that captures the readers attention while building relationships, generating more followers and driving hoards of targeted traffic.

So what makes successful Tweeples? Many things do. For example...

- Knowing how to successfully drive Tweeples to their blog
- Being apart from the crowd by NOT wasting hundreds of precious hours using Twitter, and end up with a serious addiction instead of a serious income. Unfortunately most Tweeples are broke Twitter addicts.
- Knowing how to generate thousands of followers within a week. Speed is key.
- Knowing how to break the 2,000 follower barrier. Few people know about a simple yet important trick to break the 2,000 follower limit.

- Knowing how to convert Tweeples into sales. Some people can build a list of followers on Twitter quickly, but never learn the right way to convert tweeps into sales and profits.
- Knowing how to make a serious residual income from Twitter for years to come. Do you know how to earn residual income from your free Twitter account? Chances are you don't.
- Knowing how to NOT annoy their followers, drives people away from them in droves.

There's more.... but I think you get the idea.

Some of you may already be using Twitter. But I know some of you are probably wondering, what is Twitter?

Basically twitter is the next new thing in blogging. In fact, Twittering is known as micro-blogging. A Twitter post is called a "Tweet." Let's take a look at what a "tweet" actually looks like...

As you can see here, the main difference between blogging and Twitter is, Twitter posts are tiny – only 140 characters long. This means it takes almost no time to post to Twitter. Using Twitter is a really fast way to get your name out there so that search engines will find you, and so that thousands of other people will also find you quickly and join your lists.

And, you can also reply to other people's "Tweets" by simply clicking on the little reply arrow to the right of a "Tweet."

And, you can also reply to other people's "Tweets" by simply clicking on the little reply arrow to the right of a "Tweet."

It only takes a minute or two of playing around with Twitter before you realize that Twitter is a really fun place to be. For example, it using all kinds of funny jargon. People are called Tweeples. The Twitter community itself is called a twitterverse. And there are tons of new applications which you can use with Twitter to build your business and income even faster.

You'll also notice that Twitter is just plain easy to use and you don't need to know much in order to really be successful with Twitter with respect to building your own business.

Here's a real example from my own Twitter experience.

So, back again to my story...

When I first signed up with Twitter, I didn't do anything to build my following. I just let it grow naturally as I posted. And that was all I did to gain about 250 follows. This is actually what most people do at first. Their followers grow naturally, but it is kind of slow in my opinion.

It wasn't long before I learned a little principle about Twitter, and that simple principle is 'you have to give to get.' In other words, you need to follow others in order to gain a following back. Of course, that only makes sense. But what a lot of people don't notice is, that when you click on someone's followers, Twitter displays a list of everyone who is following that person, PLUS.... they give you a little follow button.

So, I just clicked on the little follow button to follow as many of those followers as I could possibly follow. NOTE: you can follow 2,000 people. But if you want the secret way around this limit, you'll need the software and instructions in Twitter Cash.

Because some people automatically followed me back I naturally gained followers. And that is what will naturally happen to you when you start following people. Your following grows all by itself.

Here's a tip: When I opt to follow people, I only follow people with real pictures and normal names, to avoid potential automatic robot posting. If it appeared I was following a robot, I would unfollow that user.

Now, just like with virtually every single other social network, you have to be a good user, responding to people's questions, providing help when it's needed or asked for. Your objective is to gain credibility and help others. That way, they will like you, trust you, and buy from you. With Twitter, this is a lot of fun, because tweeples are really cool people, and they are really smart too. And if you are nice to them, and you are of service to them, and you add value to their Twitter experience, they will be drawn to you. They will view you as an expert and a trusted authority, so people will automatically go to your website.

Again, back to my example. I followed 2,000 people on Twitter. Roughly about 50% of those followed me back. And in a single week, my opt-in list grew to 1,000 people. And it didn't cost me a single penny to do it.

And I gotta tell you, it was the most fun I've ever had while building my list. I'd share links to great websites that have helped me in my business. I'd share funny Youtube videos, that I just thought were fun. And when I had free software or free ebooks with give away rights, I'd share that, too. It's been a fantastic and very profitable experience for me.

Here's another tip: What helped me the most was the fact that I only advertised products in only about 1 out of 7 of my posts. Now that is really important, and you need to do the same thing. What that did for me is, it helped others to see that I wasn't just another spammy user, but that I was there for the long haul and that I could be trusted and that I offered value, rather than bleeding the twitterverse and its tweeples for all that I could.

Now I know you might think that it's difficult to get followers in the thousands quickly using Twitter. That is exactly what I was thought when I first started on Twitter. But using Twitter Cash, I was able to use some easy to implement strategies and some additional software and tools, and within 48 hours, I managed to generate over 1,000 followers to my Twitter. That is exactly how powerful Twitter Cash is. It is so powerful, in fact, that Twitter has become one of my top 5 sources of traffic.

By using Twitter, you will definitely increase the amount of money you are making online. I've proven it myself, with help from Twitter Cash. But I'm not the only one. Thousands of other people prove it every single day.

But Twitter can cause problems for you, so here's a serious word of warning...Don't get addicted! I mean it, folks. For many people Twitter can become sort of like a drug. Don't believe me.... just watch this short (humorous) video which demonstrates what I'm talking about.. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ALbH63Ali9U>

As I Twittered, I found that it was really easy to spend more time than I needed to on Twitter. So, with that in mind, I follow this Twitter schedule:

Twitter 10 minutes in the morning, 10 minutes midday, and 10 minutes in the evening...be careful, because twittering can be addictive!

The next thing I did after I got my first 1,000 followers in a week was grow my follower list to 10,000 more followers in my niche. Now remember, these people who are following me are extremely targeted people. These are not just anyone. They are people who are interested in what I have to say and what I have to offer, and they watch and follow whatever I do on Twitter.

Twitter is similar to the way email marketing USED to work (past tense). As you know, email marketing still works. But you've probably noticed that email marketing is getting less and less effective. And that is precisely why Twitter is now so important and so popular, and this is exactly why you should be using it, too.

So job #1 if you are using the Twitter is to add at least 2,000 people in your first 2 or 3 days. And the easiest way to do this is to use the Twitter search feature at: <http://search.twitter.com>. You'll notice right away that the search feature looks a lot like the Google search interface. And you will use it in a similar manner. You type in a keyword or phrase on the topic of your particular niche.

So, let me give you an example to get you started. Let's say I'm interested in the dog training niche. So I'll go to <http://search.twitter.com> and type in the words dog training, then hit search. The results that will be returned back to me will be a list of all the people who have the word dog training in their previous tweets. And of course, this list is constantly being updated so it's always super fresh. Here's a screenshot of what the search results look like as I'm writing this ebook...

As you can see here, all of these people (and more) have made a tweet with the keywords dog training in it. And if dog training is my niche, and I just found all of these people on Twitter who, I know for a fact are interested in dog training because they are currently twittering about it, I will then go ahead follow them. Just like if I have a dog training tweet, and people search the words dog training, they will find me and add me and follow me because I am interested in the same thing they are interested in. You see how powerfully targeted my list is becoming by using this strategy?

Using the Twitter search box is just another way that people are going to find you. So keep that in mind when you post your tweets. You want to include your keywords that you are targeting in your tweets.

So folks, keep in mind that this is just one thing you need to do in order to have success on Twitter. There are a number of steps after you implement this first strategy, which is building a huge database of targeted followers. You get all of the rest of the steps, tools and strategies are in Twitter Cash. If you're planning on just adding all of these people and then just spamming the heck out of all of these people, and not following specific social networking rules, then you will not have the success that you want.

And the bottom line is, the more people you have following you on Twitter, the more money you are going to make. If you want to save time, make money, build the biggest emailing list ever, with virtually no effort in just hours, then and if you don't want to make any mistakes and don't want to fail, you really need to use Twitter Cash. Now if any of this seems a bit over your head and you feel it's too much for you to take on, think again... it's easy!! But if you need a little tutoring on Twitter, no problem, Twitter Cash has you covered.

So now I given you my secret to building the biggest targeted list ever in only a matter of hours, all for free.... there is one thing that I really want you to take away from this report and it is this...

Newbie websites and newcomers to the internet marketplace can get thousands of free targeted visitors quickly and build their email list into the thousands in just 24 – 48 hours, with virtually no effort and no cost at all using Twitter. I've proven it, and thousands of other tweeple have proven it too. It's probably the fastest, easiest and most effective marketing I've ever employed. If you have a website and a product and you want instant cash from, but you don't have a large advertising budget, it's time for you to consider using Twitter.com to help you get free website traffic. It's super easy to use and it is always free.
